Financial Responsibility Agreement and Disclosure Statement

When you initially register as a student at Clovis Community College, you establish an open-end account with the College through its Business Office. This agreement is a statement of the terms and conditions of that account, as well as a statement of your rights and responsibilities regarding that account. We recommend that you keep this agreement for your own reference. In the agreement, the words "we," "our," "us," "CCC" and "College" refer to Clovis Community College. The words "you," "your" and "student" refer to you, the student. The word "agreement" refers to this Agreement and Disclosure Statement.

Applicability - Your open-end account is the instrument through which Clovis Community College will process all of your financial transactions with the College. The terms of this agreement apply to all purchases, charges, fees, fines, tuition and loans made or obtained by you, made or obtained by someone else with your permission, or assessed to you, by, from, or with respect to Clovis Community College (collectively referred to as "Charges" and individually as "Charge").

Promise to Pay - You promise to pay the total amount of all charges. You also promise to pay all finance charges and other fees and expenses due under this agreement. Your account is not a secured credit account.

Notices - You agree to keep us informed of any change in your address. If we mail you a letter, notice, or statement to the last address you have given us, you agree that you will be bound by the information contained in that mailing. All notices or letters sent to us must be sent to: busoffice@clovis.edu or Clovis Community College Business Office 417 Schepps Blvd Clovis, NM 88101

Addresses on your account are your responsibility. The addresses on your account may be changed through your Pathway account at http://pathway.clovis.edu. You hereby give authority for Clovis Community College or its contracted agents to attempt to contact you via the use of e-mail, cell phone number, home number or employment number and or use any other information supplied to the Institution by automated or manual communication.

Release of Information – Clovis Community College is bound by FERPA regulations, which prohibit our representatives from discussing student information with other parties. However, the student authorizes the college to release financial or student information related to any outstanding debt to those concerned with collecting a balance due, or responding to a disputed payment. If a student wishes to share his/her financial account information with parents, guardians or other interested parties, the student must complete and return the FERPA Waiver form to the Office of the Registrar. You are personally liable for charges incurred to your student account by other persons designated by you as “Authorized Users per Federal FERPA Law.” This form is available at the Admissions and Registrar’s Office at Clovis Community College. The FERPA Waiver form information enables the College to more quickly comply with student and parent requests without jeopardizing the integrity of the account. By completing this form, you will consent to Clovis Community College disclosing to parties listed all information relating to your Clovis Community College account. You may revoke this consent at any time by notifying the Registrar’s Office in writing.

Returned Payments - In the event a payment is made on your account and the payment is returned to us unpaid as a result of non-sufficient funds or otherwise, you agree to pay us a fee of $25.00 insufficient funds fee. (The insufficient funds fee is $30.00 if payment has been processed and returned through NELNET, our online payment system.) Pre-registered classes secured by a returned payment are subject to cancellation.

Credit Limit and Collections – You agree not to incur charges in excess of the amount specifically authorized by the College. Clovis Community College reserves the right to refuse to extend credit, for any reason at any time. Delinquent accounts will be payable to Clovis Community College until paid in full or until the debt has been turned over to a collections agency or legal authorities for collections. The student is responsible for any collection costs and/or attorney fees incurred by the collection process. In the case of a delinquent account your record will be placed on hold and no transcript shall be issued. Registration for future classes will not be processed and no further credit will be extended until the account is paid in full.

Miscellaneous – This agreement shall be binding to you, your successors, your assignees and/or heirs, and shall inure to the benefit of Clovis Community College, its heirs, successors and/or assignees. This agreement is delivered in the State of New Mexico and governed by New Mexico law.

I understand and agree that by clicking on the 'Accept' box (to the left of this message), I am confirming my intent to register for the courses below and this constitutes acceptance of the agreement above.
